

THE NORTHERN LIGHTS APPEAR OVER CHICAGO

Chicago Daily Tribune (1872-1963); Mar 27, 1962; ProQuest Historical Newspapers Chicago Tribune (1890 - 1984)
pg. 12

THE NORTHERN LIGHTS APPEAR OVER CHICAGO

The Aurora Borealis, bright lights in the northern sky, appeared last night and are expected to be visible tonight. Robert I. Johnson, director of Adler planetarium, said the northern lights are caused by a large amount of solar activity on the sun, which results in electrified particles being ejected from the sun at high velocity.

---

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.